Plant milkweed for the monarchs!

Jasper is Butterfly Capital of Texas because magnificent monarchs migrate through here every spring and fall. Monarchs sip nectar from many plants, but they can only raise their young on milkweed. Their numbers are declining because herbicides have wiped out many native milkweeds. Help them by restoring habitat in your own flowerbeds.

Free Butterfly Express shuttles thanks to the City of Jasper and their employees!

29th Annual Azalea FEST just too big for the Courthouse Square

This year the festival moves to Sandy Creek Park & stretches all the way from Marvin Hancock to Hwy 96.

Find your favorite vendors for food, arts and crafts, music and more by the gazebo on the pond.

Midway in the park: Farmer's Market, 4-H and youth activities, master naturalists, Bevil's Rangers, pet adoptions and much more where the park meets Main Street near City Hall.

Water Street is the HOT SPOT of the Arboretum, and plenty of parking.

LIBRARY BOOK SALE at the Fire Hall on Water St., bargains galore, plus you get to see a vintage fire truck.

Hike up main Street for the Jasper County Historical Museum and classic car and hot-rod show.
